The Strategy and Performance Innovation Unit (SPIU), General Administration Department has taken up a Change and Delivery Plan/ Project of G.A.D., a Project on “Human Resource Management across Key Departments of Government of Andhra Pradesh – Organization of Central H.R.M. Unit in G.A.D.” which has been approved for 2008-09 for implementation under DFID supported Delivery of Improved Services (2008-09) by the Project Formulation and Implementation Review Committee (PFIRC) headed by Chief Secretary.

(2) In order to create an effective Human Resource Policy Framework that addresses recruitment, training, accountability, motivational and all other issues affecting public services and public servants and to ensure efficient and effective delivery of public services, it was recommended that a Central Human Resource Management Unit be established in the Services Wing of the General Administration Department.

(3) In the G.O. read above, as a first step orders were issued re-designating the Secretary (Services) as Secretary (Services & HRM) to initiate the process of organizing the Central HRM Unit in GAD in consultation with other Departments. The Secretary (Services & HRM) will be assisted by three (3) Consultants and their supporting staff. They will initiate study/ identifying critical Human Resource Management functions being discharged in General Administration Department, Finance and other Departments and develop a strategy on Key H.R. issues in the Government which needs to be addressed on priority and administrative measures if any required, to empower/ strengthen the Central HRM Unit vis-à-vis the Governments/ Organizations.

(4) Accordingly, Sri Noojilla Srinivas, working as Assistant Section Officer in General Administration Department, Secretariat, is selected to appoint as Consultant on deputation in Central HRM Unit, General Administration Department for a period upto 31.3.2009, as per the terms and conditions laid down in DISA (2006-09) Programme.

(5) Government, therefore, hereby place the services of Sri Noojilla Srinivas, Assistant Section Officer, General Administration Department, A.P. Secretariat, at the disposal of the Central HRM Unit, under Secretary (Ser & HRM), for appointment on deputation as Consultant to the Central Human Resource Management Unit, with immediate effect.
